British Shoot Down Jewish War Plane Over S. Palestine

JERUSALEM (Reuter)—British troops trying to prevent a general flare-up in Palestine's civil war today shot down a Jewish reconnaissance aircraft flying over a Jewish Arab gun battle, an official army source reported.

A patrol of "the blues"—crack British Life Guards regiment which is part of the royal household—saw the plane down near the Jewish settlement of Kfar Ozon, in the Hebron area of southern Palestine.

Jews in the settlement had opened fire on two trucks of King Abdullah's Trans-Jordan Arab Legion, which radioed for help. A Life Guard patrol was rushed to the spot and fired on Jewish armored vehicles and on the attackers in the settlement.

As the gun battle raged a low flying Jewish "air observation post" trying to direct the settlements fire appeared overhead and started to circle the Life Guards.

The British troops then opened up with automatic weapons and sent the plane crashing to the ground. No details of casualties have so far been reported.

Night Watchman Bound By Thugs; Cafe Robbed

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two gunmen got $1,000 in cash from a safe and a good supply of cigarettes—$100 worth—early today in a downtown cafe here.

At 8 p.m., Raymond Doucette, 22-year-old night watchman in the Vogue Cafe, was forced to lie face-down on the floor, and then bound with heavy twine. After two hours, he was released by a cook who arrived at 7 a.m.

No Rationing For Jerusalem Arabs

While Jews in Jerusalem eat sparingly of rationed food brought into the city by military convoy from Tel Aviv, the Arabs find food stores well stocked. This store, its shelves and counters cluttered with many types of food-stuffs, is in the Arab bazaar. (Photo by N.E.A.-Acme staff correspondent David S. Boyer.)

Spanish Students Protest E.R.P.'s By-pass

Arm in arm, students parade through streets of Barcelona, Spain, chanting "Truman, No," and "Peron, Yes," after the announcement that the U.S. Congress had barred Spain from taking any part in Secretary Marshall's European Recovery Program. At same time President Peron's Argentine government had okayed a trade agreement between Spain and Argentina.

General Inquiry Into Freight Rates

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's general freight rate inquiry will open as soon as the interested parties are ready to go ahead, the Board of Transport Commissioners announced today.

The board, which will conduct the investigation ordered last week by the cabinet, also declared the inquiry would call for public hearings to be held "throughout the country."

It said it was taking "appropriate steps" to get the investigation under way and to give interested parties a chance to file their submissions with the commissioners.

Besides the railways, it was expected, the chief among the parties concerned would be the seven provinces—all except Ontario and Quebec—which opposed the railways' application for general 30 per cent increases in the rate case concluded by the board a fortnight ago.

Decision of the board in that case—the award of a 21 per cent increase—touched off the forth-coming inquiry, which is expected to produce an overhaul of the whole rate structure of the Dominion.

The opposing seven provinces protested the award and called on the cabinet to delay its implementation until they could file a formal appeal. The cabinet refused to hold up the increase and decided instead to order the general investigation.

The announcement followed Mahoney's proposed laying of charges against Pritchett and Harvey Murphy, vice-president of the B.C. Federation of Labor, as a result of "unsubstantiated charges made in public" after a labor lobby split in Victoria Friday.

"Mahoney is not empowered to lay charges against us," said Pritchett. "In so doing, he is definitely exceeding his jurisdiction as western director. At the B.C. Federation of Labor executive council meeting I will strongly recommend that charges be laid against him."

Led by Mahoney, 15 delegates walked out of the Victoria lobby after demanding an unrestricted withdrawal by Murphy of statements "improperly presented" and "despicable charges" made at an open banquet.

As chairman of the meeting, Pritchett faces charges of countenancing the alleged misconduct.

In his address, Murphy denied that Reid Robinson of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Union (C.C.L.) advocated overthrow of the federal government by violence. He charged that action against Robinson "shows up our red-baiters, including C.C.L. officials."

A Toronto immigration board has ordered the deportation of Robinson on suspicion he is a Communist, a charge he denies.

Pritchett, district president of the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.) said Sunday night the B.C. Federation of Labor will hold an executive meeting to decide if charges should be laid against Bill Mahoney, C.C.L. western director, for "exceeding his jurisdiction."

Alberta Abandoning All New Liberty Libel Charges

EDMONTON (CP)—Attorney-General Lucien Haynard announced today the Alberta government will not proceed with charges against three Ontario persons of conspiring to publish a defamatory libel.

A week ago the Crown entered "stays of proceedings" in the Alberta Supreme Court in connection with the charges against Jack Kent Cooke of Toronto, publisher of New Liberty magazine; Harold E. Plagman, the magazine's Ottawa editor; and

Dr. Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa, a welfare worker.

The charges laid in connection with an article in the magazine criticizing child welfare administration by the Alberta government could have been revived. The announcement today by Mr. Haynard makes it definite the province will drop the charges.

Three days ago in the Alberta Supreme Court, Mr. Justice J. Boyd McBride acquitted Mr. Cooke of a charge of counselling to publish a defamatory libel.

tenancing in the alleged misconduct.

In his address, Murphy denied that Reid Robinson of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Union (C.C.L.) advocated overthrow of the federal government by violence. He charged that action against Robinson "shows up our red-baiters, including C.C.L. officials."

A Toronto immigration board has ordered the deportation of Robinson on suspicion he is a Communist, a charge he denies.

Pritchett, district president of the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.) said Sunday night the B.C. Federation of Labor will hold an executive meeting to decide if charges should be laid against Bill Mahoney, C.C.L. western director, for "exceeding his jurisdiction."

The announcement followed Mahoney's proposed laying of charges against Pritchett and Harvey Murphy, vice-president of the B.C. Federation of Labor, as a result of "unsubstantiated charges made in public" after a labor lobby split in Victoria Friday.

"Mahoney is not empowered to lay charges against us," said Pritchett. "In so doing, he is definitely exceeding his jurisdiction as western director. At the B.C. Federation of Labor executive council meeting I will strongly recommend that charges be laid against him."

Led by Mahoney, 15 delegates walked out of the Victoria lobby after demanding an unrestricted withdrawal by Murphy of statements "improperly presented" and "despicable charges" made at an open banquet.

U.S. Scientific Group Urges World Ban On All Atomic Power

NEW YORK (CP)—A group of United States scientists is urging the United Nations to consider immediately a plan for a world ban on atomic power.

The group director, Cuthbert Daniel, said its plan would mean shutting down the huge atomic plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Hanford, Wash., as well as any similar plants in operation in any country of the world.

"People would be willing to forget about atomic power if they could only stop worrying about the atomic bomb," Daniel said at a press conference Saturday night.

Daniel, a chemical engineer at Oak Ridge during the war, is director of the Atlantic region of the Association of Scientists for Atomic Education. He is chairman of a working committee which sent a memorandum to the power moratorium proposal to the U.N. Atomic Energy Commission. Daniel said his working committee spoke for the 80 members of the Atlantic region of the association.

Daniel said large-scale production of atomic energy has only two uses: one for power plants and the other for bombs.

"If the nations of the world agree to give up power production from nuclear fuel," Daniel said, "as well as atomic bombs, then no large-scale production need go on anywhere."

INSPECTION PROBLEM

"If no large-scale production is legal, then the problem of international control of atomic energy is greatly simplified. International inspection will be necessary, but, we feel, on a much smaller scale. It is far easier to detect an illegal plant, which is necessarily very large, than it is to control by inspection a large number of operating plants."

"This committee is fully aware that some inspection of the U.S.S.R. will be objected to by its rulers, who rely on secrecy, on terror and on slavery to keep their hold over the Russian people. These leaders will have to relax some part of their beastly regime if there is to be any real international control of atomic energy."

Women's Auxiliary To Blind Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the National Institute to the Blind was held with the president, Mrs. T. A. Rickard in the chair.

Secretary, Mrs. Newcomen, gave a review of the year's activities.

Among social entertainments given for the blind the most outstanding was the annual tea given by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Banks at Government House. Yearly sale of articles made by the blind was held in the store of David Spencer Limited.

The president's report was one of much interest. She spoke feelingly of the importance of auxiliary work and made an urgent plea for members to visit the blind. She also spoke of the death of Mrs. David Angus, who was one of the founders of the auxiliary, 16 years ago.

Mrs. Rickard tendered her resignation as president, after holding office for 14 years. Mrs. J. L. Clay paid tribute to her for splendid work, generosity and indefatigable work for the blind.

Mrs. Charles H. King was elected president for the coming year. Other officers are Miss Ruth Jones, vice-president; Mrs. Newcomen secretary; Mrs. J. W. Ruggles, treasurer; Mrs. Balantyne, radio; Mrs. C. F. Armstrong, transportation; Mrs. H. Weiden, publicity.

It was moved and passed unanimously that Mrs. Harry Barnard be elected an honorary member in recognition of her help and generosity.

Lewis Settles Mines Dispute But Faces Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—John L. Lewis got a pension plan for his United Mine Workers (Ind.) today and gave them the word to go back to work, but this failed to save him from an order to stand trial for contempt of court.

Federal Judge A. Alan Goldsborough ruled Lewis must come into court Wednesday at 10 a.m., E.S.T., to face a contempt charge for allegedly ignoring an April 3 court order to call off the strike over a pension dispute.

Welly K. Hopkins, counsel for Lewis, argued in vain that a telegram Lewis sent the miners 20 minutes before Judge Goldsborough's court opened was "full faith" compliance with the stop-strike order.

That telegram said: "Pensions granted. Agreement honored." The mine workers' leader sent the telegram after accepting a plan for $100-a-month pension at age 62 for miners with 20 years service who retired after May 28, 1946.

That was the date a mine workers' welfare fund was set up. It is financed by 10-cent-a-ton royalty on each ton of coal mined.

Members of the United Mine Workers otherwise eligible for the pension will get it even though they worked in mines which have not paid the royalty.

PROPOSED BY SENATOR
This plan was proposed by Senator Styles Bridges (Rep.-N.H.) as a compromise of Lewis demand for pensions for all miners age 60 with 20 years' service regardless of the date they entered. Ezra Van Horn, representing the mine operators in negotiations with Bridges and Lewis, opposed the Bridges plan, but was out-voted.

All this was concluded before Judge Goldsborough's hearing on an order for Lewis to show cause why he should not be held in contempt.

Then came the Judge's decision that Lewis must stand trial Wednesday.

Before Judge Goldsborough acted, there had been every indication the miners would go back to work. But the news that Lewis would have to stand trial raised a question with some labor observers here whether the miners might decide to stay out a while longer.

The mine owners accepted the agreement for the welfare fund last year.

SUGGESTED AT 60
Lewis had demanded a $100 pension for miners 60 years' old with 20 years' service, but also wanted all members of the United Mine Workers to be eligible.

The U.M.W. has members at some mines which have not paid money into the welfare fund. The operators took the stand that only miners employed by paying mines should be eligible. Bridges proposed that $5,000,000 be set aside from the $32,000,000 collected thus far by a 10-cent-a-ton royalty, for payment of the pensions under his arrangement.

The strike began three days after Lewis had told the miners their 1947 contract had been "dishonored."

BACK TO WORK QUICKLY

Before the meeting, Lewis had told reporters it was "reasonable" to assume the miners would be back at work tomorrow if there was an agreement on a pension plan.

The Bridges arrangement was only a tentative settlement because, he said, "the decisions we as trustees make are not unchangeable."

"The opportunity to change them at any time is guaranteed," Bridges added.

"The announcement of the agreement was made 20 minutes before the U.M.W. chief and the union were hailed before Justice Goldsborough for the contempt charge based on Lewis' failure to call off the strike as ordered April 3 by Judge Matthew F. McGuire.

Recommend Tax Rate Be Held At 45-2 Mills

City finance committee today recommended to City Council that the tax rate for 1948 be set at 45 1/2 mills, the same as last year.

At the same time, Ald. Ed. Williams, chairman of the committee, outlined a new system of dealing with estimates which he asked the council to adopt.

Recommendations that the mill rate be set before estimates are discussed follows his plan.

"I never have been satisfied with the way in which we deal with the estimates. The change in policy I am suggesting is long overdue," he said.

"The firm tax rate for 1948 should be 45 1/2 mills—nothing more, nothing less," he continued. "And we should be in a resolution to make the estimates, in spite of everything, conform with that figure."

The committee chairman agreed that the 45 1/2 mill rate, the highest on record, "represents an unduly heavy burden to many of our citizens." He could not see any possibility of reducing it this year, though.

WILLIAMS' PLAN

Under his plan for dealing with the estimates, Ald. Williams asked that the city comptroller submit with the complete draft estimates a separate statement showing the lower amounts available to each department to meet the rate set.

All estimates are higher this year.

The question of how the money allotted can be spent to the best advantage would be left to the discretion of the committee of each department and to the department head.

"This would dispense with the bickering and prolonged argument which always go with estimates discussion," Ald. Williams said.

It also would eliminate the opportunity afforded under the present policy for members of the council not on the committee concerned, to proposed cutting various items of no particular interest to him but possibly considered important by the committee, the alderman continued.

He suggested that if additional revenue comes to the city from sources not now apparent, this money should be allotted proportionately to the various departments, up to the amount the appropriation of each was cut to meet the fixed tax rate.

Present policy for dealing with estimates is for the council to go through the lists, vote on each after making cuts "with very little if any regard, comparatively, for the need or importance of other estimates for the same or any other department."

Then the amount of money which must be raised to meet the total at which the council has arrived, is estimated by the comptroller.

If this has appeared to be within reason, the tax rate has been struck at a figure deemed necessary to raise the money.

Publicity Bureau Asks For Grant

Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau today asked City Council to include in its 1948 budget a $20,000 grant for continued operation of the tourist service of the organization.

The same amount was given by the city last year. Oak Bay made a $500 grant, and subscriptions brought $7,545 revenue.

Directors of the bureau said costs of operation would be higher this year, but that in view of the city's financial condition, they are not asking for more than was given last year.

The B.C. Provincial Government Employees' Association will be addressed by D. R. Monk at the Prince Robert House at 8 tonight.

Colombia Breaks Relations With Soviet; Holds 2 Agents

Following is a pooled dispatch from correspondents in Bogota made public by the U.S. State Department:

BOGOTA (AP)—The government radio announced today Colombia has broken diplomatic relations with Russia. The break in relations followed an announcement Saturday that two Soviet Russian agents had been arrested in connection with Friday's revolution.

The government radio said today 15 foreign agents, including two Russians, had been caught "in flagrante" (in the act) and some had been taken alive. It said three foreign agents had been taken while trying to start trouble.

The announcer said delegates to the disrupted inter-American conference had decided to continue sessions of the conference here. He said this was done "so that Communism could not triumph over Colombia and the rest of the nations of the hemisphere."

Shortly after dawn people in the downtown area where the United States embassy offices are situated began coming out of their houses in numbers unseen since Friday night.

Coalition Says Revolution Over

By Associated Press

A new coalition government claimed today to have put down a "Communist insurrection" in Colombia—the mob uprising that wrecked the heart of Bogota, scene of the Pan-American conference.

Delegates agreed to go on with the ninth international conference of American states, started March 20 and interrupted Friday by the revolt.

In Havana, a radio broadcast from Medellin Colombia, was heard saying the conference would be resumed in Bogota sometime today. The broadcast said pending anti-Communist resolutions would be considered by the conferees at the earliest possible moment.

Bogota, 400-year-old mountain capital, was a picture of devastation. The latest city morgue count showed 300 persons dead. Public buildings, Roman Catholic churches, and stores were burned and looted ruins. Soldiers guarded downtown street corners.

Diggon-Hibben Seeks $200,000 For Expropriated Property

A sum in excess of $200,000 for property and buildings expropriated on Government Street by the Dominion government was claimed by Diggon-Hibben Ltd., in Exchequer Court today.

The Dominion government in expropriating the Diggon-Hibben property, which includes four lots and buildings, offered $99,670 in settlement of all claims. The company refused to accept the offer on the grounds that the sum did not compensate for economic losses resulting from being forced off the property.

The company claimed that the figure arrived at by the government did not take into consideration the value of the land, buildings, compensation for forced sale, for time in searching for new premises, for loss of sales and other items involved in moving the present business to a new location.

C. F. Dawson, district resident architect, first witness called to the stand, testified he had been instructed by the department of public works to evaluate the property, which the government is expected to use for a new post-office.

He said he evaluated the four buildings, which included shelving and a power plant, at $70,099. This figure did not include the land value of the four lots.

The buildings which have been joined together were more than 40 years old, he said, and would deteriorate quickly if vacated.

"By reason of their age," he said, the buildings have served their usefulness.

Mr. Dawson also said the buildings should be pulled down because they constituted a fire hazard in the centre of Victoria.

He explained he had arrived at his figure by taking into consideration the age of the building, the materials used in its construction and its present usefulness as business premises.

Chief Justice Thorson asked the witness if he included in his figure an amount for depreciation of the buildings.

The witness replied that he had not taken into consideration depreciation. He said he would take 40 per cent off to cover depreciation.

In answer to a question by His Lordship, Mr. Dawson said cost of a similar building would amount to about the same as the government had offered for the

Mystery Shrouds Disappearance Of Victoria Fishboat

Uncertainty today shrouded the fate of the fishing vessel Barbara J., missing out of Cadboro Bay since Saturday with a Victoria fisherman, H. E. Pears of Royal Oak, aboard.

First report was received by city police from V. Speed, part owner of the boat, who said his partner had gone out from Cadboro Bay Saturday afternoon and not returned. P. C. Pike, the Discovery Island lighthouse keeper, reported he had sighted the Barbara J. about 9 the same evening. She was showing a flare and seemed to be in distress.

Because of trouble with his own boat, Mr. Pike was unable to go to the Barbara J.'s aid. However, he continued watching and finally saw a boat put by from the American side.

The American boat was seen to take the Victoria vessel in tow and head back for the American side and it was presumed they went to Friday Harbor on San Juan Island, but Sgt. C. Jacklin of the B.C. police, reported shortly before noon today that a check had been made by his department at San Juan Island and the vessel had not been seen there.

No Gas Ration Yet

OTTAWA (CP)—Reconstruction Minister Howe told the Commons this afternoon he sees no prospect of gasoline rationing in Canada this year. While he conceded there "always" was a possibility of rationing, he said he knew of no situation which made it any more necessary this year than last year, when there also was a shortage.

Registration Fees Up

Amendments to the Partnership Act and Conditional Sales Act, now before the Legislature, provide for substantial increases in the fees charged services under the act.

In some cases the fees are quadrupled by the amendments introduced by Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer.

Roosevelt Statue Unveiled Before Throng Of Britons

LONDON (CP)—Britain's memorial to President Roosevelt was unveiled by the widow and dedicated by the King today—the third anniversary of the wartime United States President's death.

The Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack hung side by side in thousands of windows as the King and his people stood at salute in grateful memory to the President.

The ceremony in Grosvenor Square became a spontaneous demonstration of British affection for the United States and its war leader.

GREAT FRIEND

His Majesty, asking Mrs. Roosevelt to unveil the 10-foot bronze statue of the late President, assured her on "behalf of the peoples of the whole British Commonwealth" that they would regard it as a fitting memorial to "a great man and a great friend."

Hours before the triumphs sounded and bright uniforms appeared, the ordinary folk of London had crowded into the square where the United States embassy stands and where much of the United States war effort overseas was concentrated in the days of battle.

Their applause came beating across the square when Lewis Douglas, United States ambasador to Britain, asked that the memorial be "symbolic of a unity of purpose which no calumny can destroy, no superficial difference can corrupt and no prejudice can destroy."

London wore its best graces as the Royal cars swept into the square and the Royal Standard rose to the top of the flagstaff before the statue. The sun beat down on glittering bayonets and the buttons of United States and Royal Marines who faced each other with the memorial between.

Behind them, fountain sparkled. Norman Robertson, Canadian High-Commissioner to the United Kingdom, sat with other diplomats. Field Marshal Viscount Alexander, Governor-General of Canada, had a place in the Royal pavilion.

Marine rifles snapped to salute when Mrs. Roosevelt took her place in the pavilion, and before the ceremony she chatted with Prime Minister Attlee, Conservative leader Winston Churchill, and Most Rev. Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury.

CHURCHILL BAREHEADED

Churchill, muffled in a heavy coat and white scarf, sat bareheaded, his face impassive as Douglas later referred to him as Roosevelt's associate in building wartime co-operation between the British and United States peoples.

"There is recorded in the chronicles of mankind no similar concept among nations—so complete, so harmonious and so successful," Douglas said.

A NEW PATTERN

RECENT DIPLOMATIC STROKES BY the western democracies indicate that they have changed their defensive tactics on the international front and are now determined to carry the ideological battle to their Communist opponents. For a long time the "cold war" pattern has been one of successive surprise moves by Russia and subsequent hurried attempts by the western nations to meet or counteract them. But now there is evident an application of the policy of beating the Reds at their own game—a reversal of procedure which the high stakes of the forthcoming Italian elections have made necessary.

In line with this policy, for example, was the western demand for restoration of Trieste, now under joint United Nations control, to Italy. Such a return would be agreed to by Communist Yugoslavia only as a bait to capture Italy through a Red victory at the polls, and such is by no means certain. The Russian group was thus put in the position of opposing the democracies on the point, much to the discomfort of Italian Communists—and the Italian electors were able to see which side was advocating their interests in the matter of ownership of the Adriatic port.

The same manoeuvre has been carried out in regard to the United Nations proposal to admit Italy to United Nations membership. On two previous occasions Russia had vetoed this suggestion. On Saturday she did so again—a direct slap by the Kremlin at the Italian people, and likely to prove of no help to the Italian leftists in trying to win the support of the voters at home. The issue was adroitly raised by the United States only eight days before election day in a move designed to clarify basic realities for the Italians. As the United States' delegate, Mr. Warren Austin, pointed out in the Security Council when supporting the application: "If this Council should unfortunately fail to recommend Italy's admission . . . the world can interpret the act in no other way than as an expression by the Soviet Union of a lack of friendship for the people of Italy." Russia then vetoed the proposal for the third time, leaving the Italians to form their own conclusions. The vote was nine to two, with the Ukraine joining the Soviet in opposition.

With these two diplomatic victories on the record, Washington observers now look for some spectacular reply from the Russian camp, designed to swing a sizeable bloc of voters to the left before the Italian ballots are collected next April 18. What form it may take, if any, is not known, but it is unlikely that the pre-election period will be quiet, either on the Mediterranean or the international front.

TRAVELING PUBLICITY

CONSIDERABLE PUBLICITY VALUE IS suggested in the proposal to include a British Columbia emblem on motor vehicle license plates next year. The addition of a distinctive mark of some artistic merit, would, in effect, place an advertising sign on every B.C. car that traveled beyond provincial boundaries. Whether or not the scheme is feasible is a matter for the authorities to determine. Little objection could be expected from the motoring public which, after the unhappy experience of 1948, will be disinclined to complain about any plate that does not peel.

STUDY IN TECHNIQUE

EVENTS OF THE NEXT SIX DAYS MAY disclose wider support for intensified Communist pre-election activities in Italy. But early reports of today's one-hour strike in that country indicate that it "had little visible effect," except that the cafes were crowded with those who took the stoppage as a rest period. Not all the services ceased operations for the 60-minute period and many stores ignored the event, although industry observed the temporary shut-down call.

In these hectic days before the balloting which will be so important to the entire world it may be unsafe to venture generalities. At the same time, the reaction of the Italians to today's event may be of more than passing significance. It might be taken as an indication of appreciation for the progressive, constructive policies of the western democracies—chiefly the United States—which have advanced programs for the reconstruction and rehabilitation of Italy, as against the destructive strike technique of the extreme left which seeks to create a condition of unrest and chaos on which Communism can feed.

In common with all nations, both those ravaged by war and those which are seeking to alleviate the suffering of peoples from the destruction of industry, production is a vital element in the restoration of Italian economy. The significance of that fact cannot be lost on the nation. Nor is it too much to believe that Italians, recognizing that truth, are averse to plunging themselves into greater misery by downing tools when the output of all commodities must be stepped up. The traditional leftist flavor of the north could account for the observance of the strike by factory workers. On the other hand, reaction in Rome and elsewhere suggests a lack of sympathy for the technique employed by the Communists. Until the ballots are counted, such opinions must, of course, be speculative. But preliminary reports on the one-hour strike are not discouraging to the western democracies.

ENDURING SPIRIT

THREE YEARS AGO TODAY THAT SECTION of humanity which loves freedom was stunned by the death of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The great heart, which had overcome crippling disabilities and had inspired millions in their crusade against aggression, gave out. Yet the ideals of Franklin Roosevelt did not die with him. They have become enshrined in the memory of those who drew spiritual strength from his leadership and who have retained the faith he helped to establish despite the trying times which have come since he left the world of men.

Today in London that spirit was re-emphasized as the King asked Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt to unveil the 10-foot bronze statue of the late President, assuring her on "behalf of the peoples of the whole British Commonwealth" that they would regard it as a fitting memorial to "a great man and a great friend." The ideals for which President Roosevelt stood have not yet been accepted universally. They do, however, illuminate the path to that better life charted in the "Four Freedoms."

The event in Grosvenor Square today was a fitting tribute to the memory of a great leader. It was, moreover, a striking example of the affectionate accord between two nations which have championed liberty. And it will be the hope of those countries and all their friends that the sentiment expressed by Ambassador Lewis Douglas, that the memorial will be "symbolic of a unity of purpose which no calumny can distort, no superficial difference can corrupt and no prejudice can destroy," will be as enduring as the bronze.

WIDER FRONT

A NEWLY-FORMED COALITION GOVERNMENT in Colombia appears today to be restoring order under martial law following the rioting which marked the week-end. Some 300 persons were killed in the street fighting, 40 major buildings were set on fire, and 1,000 stores and many churches were damaged in the outbreak which was set off by the assassination of a Liberal political leader. Communists have been blamed for the uprising and its attendant destruction, and the arrest of a number of foreign agents, including two Russians, has led the Bogota government to break off diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union. The incident seems to have assumed a pattern which had become familiar in certain European countries, where general strikes, street rioting and organized rebellion accompanied Communist governmental coups.

While the Communist element in the Colombia situation emphasizes a new factor in Latin American political developments, the events in Bogota have been of interest to the rest of this hemisphere mainly because they occurred just as the Ninth International Conference of American States was getting under way. From this point of view, the outbreak assumes the appearance of a deliberate attempt to hamper Pan-American unity by making it impossible to continue the meetings. There will therefore be general satisfaction over the announcement that the conference is to continue, in order that "Communism could not triumph over Colombia and the rest of the nations of the hemisphere." The ideological war between East and West has increased its front considerably through recent events in Colombia, Paraguay and other areas in the southern part of this hemisphere. Its violence has been brought nearer home to the people of Canada.

TREND OF BANK DEPOSITS

THE ANNUAL CLASSIFICATION OF bank deposits recently published by the Bank of Canada reveals that, as of September 30, 1947, the chartered banks carried a total of 6,337,500 savings accounts. This figure represents an increase of 274,000 over the number carried on October 31, 1946. The average amount on deposit rose from $573 on the latter date to $600 eleven months later. Approximately 87 per cent of the accounts were for $1,000 or less, the same percentage as in the previous year.

The total of the savings deposits on September 30 stood at $3,805,000,000, an increase of $329,000,000 over the figure reported for October 31 the year before. About 64 per cent of the total value of the funds were in accounts of $5,000 and less, most of which were owned by individuals, although a few were held by corporations.

Demand deposits, most of which are owned by business enterprises, were of the average value of $2,456 on September 30, 1947, as against $2,762, on October 31, 1946. The demand deposits constituted about 36 per cent of all deposits, the balance of 4 per cent being debited to savings accounts.

The decrease in the average value of the demand deposits is thought to be mainly due to the fact that the increased cost of goods and services made it necessary for many merchants and manufacturers to draw more heavily upon such accounts than they had been required to do the year previously.

The number of demand deposit accounts increased, however, moving from 838,500 on October 31, 1946 to 880,600 on September 30, 1947.

WISCONSIN AND THE PEOPLE

THE WISCONSIN primary has been an interesting experiment in how the American voters prefer to be dealt with this year. General MacArthur made no effort whatever to tell them anything, treating them as if they were primitive people who had not yet become self-governing and had to be ruled by mystery, magic, prestige and awe. Governor Dewey talked at the people, using the nicely calculated points of an efficient public relations campaign. Mr. Stassen talked with the voters and argued with them.

His showing is pretty good evidence that a great many people are in a mood to be persuaded and led rather than to be cajoled and wheedled and pushed.

THIS HAS an important bearing on the question which perplexes the Administration: Whether Congress and the country can be persuaded, or whether they have to be excited and frightened, to support the draft, the additional appropriations, and the military commitments which all the well informed and responsible deem necessary at this time. There is no doubt that strong military measures taken promptly but without bluster and hysteria would give the maximum security at minimum cost and risk. But the Truman administration is very bashful about the capacity of the people to follow rational leadership, perhaps because it does not know how to supply it. It is disposed, therefore, to resort to excitement, as it did over Greece and Turkey last year, as now over the Russian submarines off American coasts and other selected tidbits.

THE TROUBLE with using excitement as a device to pass necessary measures is that it aggravates the crisis which the measures are designed to deal with; and then that it infects the government itself—as for example in the curiously complicated mishap over Spain, and the vote in the House and the Myron Taylor mission to the Vatican and to Madrid; and then that it is self-defeating because the people, if they are excited too often, begin to realize that they are being excited, and to wonder whether the crisis is real.

General Clay's performance in Berlin is a striking example of how affairs can be well conducted. Under great and deliberate provocation he has not lost face and he has not lost his temper. A lesser man could easily have been tempted, with the spotlight of the world upon him, to strike an heroic pose, to declaim, to utter memorable and resounding phrases, and to make himself the central figure in a grand opera.

BUT THAT LESSER MAN, though he too broke the Russian blockade of Berlin, would in fact have lost the game which the Russians chose to play. For he would have caused the Germans and the masses of the people of Europe to feel that American power does not promise security but a fearful explosion which would hurt American friends as much as opponents.

The fact that General Clay has been as calm as he has been firm, that he has been as rational as he has been resolute, will enhance, not merely maintain, the prestige of the allies which the Russian manoeuvre was designed to test and to impair. No doubt there will be other manoeuvres. It will be comforting to know that a man of Clay's exceptional virtue, of his strength and moral refinement, is to remain where he is.

THERE IS CONSIDERABLE discussion in the United States—the question was raised by Governor Dewey in his Wisconsin speeches—about the role which military men are playing in the government. No generalization on the subject makes any sense. Nothing can be said about all the generals and admirals and their civilian chiefs which is remotely true of all of them. Nothing can be said about the "military mind" which is true of all the military minds. What can be said, I think, is that in the absence of coherent, considered leadership and the exercise of authority in the White House, authority is scattered among individuals and among bureaus. As a result there is among them in matters of high policy conflict and competition to make prevail what this individual or that happens to think is in the national interest.

IT IS THIS CONDITION of affairs—which it is not easy to describe clearly—that is creating an impression of what is usually known as militarism. The United States is not now, I am satisfied, the victim of this dangerous disease. But her immunity to it is not what it should be. That is not because there is anything resembling a genuine militarist movement but because the world crisis is so great, the civilian power so weak, and the military establishment so imperfectly unified.

There is nothing as yet that could not be cured by an efficient administration with a genuine mandate from the people. Copyright, 1948, New York Herald Tribune Inc.

Home For Hungry Children

Norway Digest

MAINTAINING a long-cherished tradition, Norwegian aid continues to reach Europe's needy through a broad range of activities and organizations. On March 19, 47 Jewish children from the most hard-pressed families in the Berlin area arrived in Oslo for a three-month stay, with Norwegian foster parents. Four days earlier 44 Austrian youngsters bid adieu to their Norwegian "parents" following seven months in Norway—seven months during which pale, spindly-limbed tots were miraculously transformed into healthy, normal children. All of them spoke perfect Norwegian, many had even forgotten their mother-tongue.

At the present time, over 900 Jewish refugees have found homes in the Sognsvann district near Oslo, with entry permits issued for an additional 200 refugees soon to arrive from Poland. According to Oslo's Aftenposten, measures to cope with a possible increase in the number of refugees to Norway was the subject of a recent discussion at the Norwegian Ministry of Social Affairs. The latter was of a purely preparatory nature, anticipating a situation which might follow possible political developments in Finland.

HELP FROM SEAMEN

Norwegian Seamen's Union leaders in the Vestfold district have urged officers and men aboard Norway's whaling fleet to give a day's wage to the U.N. Children's Appeal. At the union's suggestion, the whaling companies have agreed to match any sum collected aboard the vessels through "One Day's Work" drive.

Following their "day's work," fishermen from the west-Norwegian port of Haugesund kept right on sailing, and landed their steamer Storesund in Bremerhaven, Germany, with a load of 4,662 cases of freshly fed herring—a gift for hungry German children. Receiving the gift, the mayor of Bremerhaven observed:

"The Norwegian people do not return evil for evil. Rather, do they show their determination to rebuild a world wracked by war."

Co-Operation In Southeast Asia

India Information Service

"INDIA is bound to play an important part in the development of the Southeast Asia region. Everything points to that both economically and strategically," said Prime Minister Pandit Nehru inaugurating the annual session of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry in New Delhi late last month. He added: "I am not thinking in terms of India as the leader of southeast Asia or dominating this region, but rather as cooperating with other countries in building up a common sphere of action, economic and otherwise. Countries around this region—Ceylon, Siam, Indonesia, Malaya and others—will also gravitate into mutual co-operation." Pandit also comes within this sphere from the economic and defence points of view.

Emphasising that some sort of economic grouping was likely to take place in the Southeast Asia region, Pandit Nehru said that this development was based on closer co-operation between countries in Southeast Asia and did not mean a grouping against any other group. It was not directed against anybody but was intended just to preserve freedom and help each other. "Ultimately Australia and New Zealand will also find place in this group. Geographically they are bound to come in. It was not a racial idea nor based on religion but essentially one based on geographical considerations which ultimately exercise a powerful influence on future policy."

As Our Readers See It

TO DEMAND APOLOGY

Many people were shocked to hear that immunity on the floor of the B.C. Legislature was taken advantage of to make a cowardly personal attack upon one of the Supreme Court judges and thereby point in contempt at our courts of justice.

Mr. Harold Winch and his father grossly libeled the Hon. Mr. Justice Manson showing no respect for his person or for the office he holds and up to the present, no amends have been made in the B.C. Legislature for these gratuitous indignities.

To the general public this is not good enough and Coalitionist and C.C.F. members should demand an apology in the Legislature or pass a vote of censure on these two members and thereby dispose of this very unpleasant incident which has been left in the air.

BASIL GARDOM

SALES TAX

Is it not true that some effective public protest was raised against the proposed sales tax? What about the unfortunate people of British Columbia who will have to bear this fresh burden? The Premier, we are told, "is reported to have threatened to go to the country on the sales tax issue." Surely this is an excellent suggestion. I, for one, will be most happy to vote against any government which attempts to place this most unfair burden on the people. This is a democracy; let the people vote on this proposal which so vitally affects us all and on any alternative offered. Premier Johnson has succeeded John Hart; let him test his popularity with the people.

How is this sales tax to be levied? If we can avoid the wretched token system are we to have equally troublesome stamps? Our valuable tourist trade will certainly be injured. A whole host of bureaucrats will be installed to endeavor to collect on every trifling transaction. Why not a graduated business tax such as the city of Vancouver is now trying? Or have they jumped the gun?

JOHN KENNY STRAHAN

Keeping Out Of Debt

Edmonton Bulletin

If world trade is to flow freely between nations, there will have to be some device to keep one country from sliding farther and farther into debt to another; or the present situation suggests, how to keep all the others from slipping perennially farther into debt to the United States.

TRIUMPH OF SPIRIT

The Canadian Friends' Service Committee records its deep concern at growing tension made evident by events in China, Greece, Czechoslovakia, Finland and other countries. In all of these situations spiritual values are being subordinated to the struggle for material and political power. The continued reliance on political and military power must lead to more widespread armed conflict, unless the spiritual and moral forces of the world are mobilized in sufficient strength to overcome the fears and suspicions which aggravate the present situation.

This committee welcomes the growth of an international consciousness as shown by the formation of the League of Nations and the present United Nations Organization. The weaknesses which have been revealed in the functioning of these organizations have been largely due to conflicting material interests, the refusal thus far to surrender national sovereignty, fear and suspicion. The hope for the world lies in the triumph of the spirit of Christ which takes away fear, transcends national frontiers and makes of mankind one brotherhood.

The Canadian Friends' Service Committee (Quakers),

Global Survey

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

WITH totalitarianism perched like a carrion crow on the backs of many stricken countries, we now have the unhappy spectacle of the United Nations conference on freedom of information at Geneva adopting a resolution in favor of permitting government subsidies for national news agencies.

A subsidized press is a shackled press.

To be sure only 21 of the some 50 delegations voted, the result being 16 to 5 in favor of the resolution. The resolution carries no authority, merely being an expression of opinion, but unfortunately it does represent retrogression.

There is no such thing as a subsidized national news agency in Canada or the United States. Governments don't subsidize news agencies for purely altruistic reasons, and the minute an agency accepts such a gratuity it ipso facto commits itself to serve the donor.

True, the government may not be exacting in its demands for space and may allow the agency a free hand with news in which the state isn't concerned. But where the government has a special interest it will summon reporters from the agency and hand them such "news" as officialdom wishes circulated for propaganda value. Frequently, too, the government will suppress news which it doesn't wish published.

Then there are peculiar complications in countries that have constitutions under which governments can be kicked out of office at any time by an adverse majority in parliament.

The subsidized agency has to change the color of its news, like a chameleon on a variegated wall, to suit the hue of the new government.

Such canned "news" frequently is calculated to mislead foreign countries, but it generally misleads its own people at the same time.

There is no greater threat to good understanding among peoples than subsidized "news." There is no better aid to peace than a free press which cultivates real acquaintance between countries.

NO NEUTRALITY

Montreal Gazette
There can be no kind of neutrality between communism and capitalism. In so far as socialism preserves respect for national and individual freedom, it must find itself altogether closer to American capitalism than to Russian communism. And in the present swift and crucial alignment of power, the strength and vigor of American capitalism, represented particularly in the Marshall Plan, is socialism's best hope of survival.

LOADING ANTS

Edmonton Journal
American scientists, returning from a survey in central America—where ants are more numerous and more highly developed than they are in colder latitudes—report that in the average colony only 40 per cent of the insects are real go-getters. Twenty per cent work occasionally, and the remainder, we regret to say, are no good at all; they spend their time "loafing about the nest." That is a higher proportion of loafers than in any human society. It's all very disillusioning!

LEDUC OIL FIELDS

London (Ont.) Free Press
Imperial Oil has decided to turn from South America as a source of oil to Canada. The importance of this to the economy of Canada cannot be over-estimated. The Dominion has in the past been almost wholly dependent upon the United States and South America for our oil. It has been one of the chief reasons for the balance of trade against us with the Republic. With oil becoming daily more and more important in the industrial world the discovery and the development of a major oil field in Canada is of the highest significance.

WE HAVE NO BANANAS

Windsor Star
This particular corner of southwestern Ontario is the "banana belt" of Canada. This incontrovertible fact is undeniable. Windsor is the capital of the banana belt. This is an unarguable assertion of unimpeachable veracity. Having examined this indisputable data from all angles in the light of the weather we've been having for these past couple of days, it appears undeniable, incontrovertible, unarguable, unimpeachable and indisputable that the banana is one heck of a hardy vegetable.

Aorangi Resuming Service

MY AORANGI

The 17,500-ton motor liner Aorangi will resume passenger and freight service between Victoria-Vancouver and New Zealand-Australia, via Hawaii and Fiji during the latter part of this year, it was officially announced today.

The flagship of the Canadian-Australasian Line, released from war duties, is now undergoing reconversion at Sydney, Australia, in the Union Steamship Co. shipyard.

Since 1931, the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Union Steamship Co. of New Zealand, have been equal partners in the Canadian Australasian Line. A sailing schedule for the Aorangi will be issued later.

The Aorangi will resume a 55-year-old shipping connection between Canada and New Zealand and Australia, temporarily broken during the war when the Aorangi sailed under the direction of the ministry of war transport of the United Kingdom and her running mate, the Niagara, fell victim to enemy action.

Before the war, both liners had a high reputation with shippers and with the international public, and it is felt the return of the Aorangi will provide excellent facilities for the promotion of trade and tourist traffic on the Pacific, and help in easing the American dollar situation in Canada, New Zealand and Australia.

3 Western Powers Ignoring Soviet Protest On Germany

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Over angry Russian protests, Britain, the United States and France have decided to go ahead at once with their own plans for unifying western Germany economically.

They may decide to set up a separate political regime as well.

The decision to hold another three-power meeting in London to blueprint Germany's future was reported authoritatively today as the conflict between the Soviet Union and the west entered a critical week.

It is a week which may be climaxed by last-minute moves on both sides to try to influence the outcome of the extremely important Italian election next Sunday.

Some European diplomats who have conferred recently with top U.S. officials believe the issue of peace in Europe may be determined by the Italian voting.

NEW TENSIONS

That the week will bring new alarms and tensions seems certain. Whether it may also shed light on some of the dimmer areas of Soviet-Western rivalry remains to be seen.

Washington officials are hopeful especially, however, that the whole question of Communist participation in the Bogota revolution may be cleared up within a few days.

That violent outbreak struck a blow at American prestige by disrupting the inter-American conference in session there.

Some Colombian government leaders as well as some other Latin American officials already have charged that Communists engineered the whole bloody and destructive affair. United States officials, however, while reporting that the Communists tried to make capital of the violence once it started, have refrained from assessing full blame.

The Bogota incident derives at least part of its importance from the impact it may have on European thinking in a critical period. In this respect it is examined by diplomatic authorities here much the same way that the conflict between Russia and the western powers in Berlin has been studied—for evidence of relative strength between east and west.

That the western powers are preparing now to follow a new and stronger course in Germany was indicated by information on the London meeting.

Britain, the United States and France agreed there several weeks ago on basic principles for the economic unification of western Germany as part of the European recovery program.

"You Will This Way, Baby"

Suggests Dietitian Mrs. E. Curley. "For mother can easily teach you to love it . . . by first feeding you a little Aylmer Strained Spinach with some vegetables you already like, such as Aylmer Carrots. Soon spinach becomes an 'old favorite'—instead of a strange new taste! Then mother will have no trouble feeding you the spinach you need for iron and other minerals."

Yes, and if mothers could only see the lovely fresh, crisp spinach arriving at spotless Aylmer kitchens . . . could see it washed time after time in clear running water . . . they'd know why dietitians approve. And if they could see it double-strained to a 27/1000ths of an inch and cooked in sealed containers to help retain vitamins and minerals . . . they'd know why Aylmer Strained Spinach is so often recommended by doctors. Insist on Aylmer!

Victoria Matches To Tour Province

Seated in the offices of the Western Match Co. is Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Public Works. He is counting the last of the matches that went into the estimating contest container. Standing, left to right, are: Agnes Portnoff, "The Western Match Girl"; E. G. Smith, president of Western Match; E. G. Rowbottom, deputy minister of trade and industry, who has done much to aid the new industry; and R. L. "Bert" Challoner, vice-president and managing-director of the company.

Opening ceremony in the Western Match Company's province-wide "match estimating contest" took place at the company's plant at Fairview and Devonshire Roads, Esquimalt, on Saturday, when Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Public Works, counted the final matches. Without revealing their number he added them to a number previously counted by R. L. Challoner, vice-president of the company, assisted by "The Western Match Girl," Agnes Portnoff and Q.C.A. Pilot Walter Britland.

Matches were placed in a plastic glass container which will be locked for the duration of the estimating contest and displayed through the province.

Mr. Carson congratulated E. G. Smith, Western Match president, and company officials on the initiative they had shown in operating successfully one of the few independently-owned match companies in the world.

To witness the ceremony a Q.C.A. plane, piloted by Britland, and carrying Miss Portnoff and Archie Foreman, chairman of the B.C. Products Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade, and members of the Vancouver press was flown to Nanaimo, where W. Barnes, editor of the Nanaimo Free Press, was taken on board.

The plane was rechartered and flown to Patricia Bay.

Following the match counting, numbers were placed in an envelope which was sealed with wax and stamped. This will be placed in the safe-keeping of Mr. Foreman for the duration of the estimating contest.

Contest is open to all British Columbians who may obtain entry blanks from retailers. During the contest the locked container will be displayed throughout the province, starting with Vancouver. The grand finale will take place in Victoria where winners will be announced.

First prize will be a $400 Admiral console radio and second prize will be an hour's trip on a Q.C.A. plane. The number of

California Honeymoon, Live In Seattle

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Frank Chiarelli

Lighted candles shed a soft glow in Metropolitan United Church, Saturday evening, as Theresa Audrey Ruffell, daughter of Major and Mrs. W. H. Ruffell, exchanged marriage vows with Peter Frank Chiarelli, son of Mrs. James Chiarelli of Seattle.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Chiarelli are now driving to Carmel, California, where they will spend their honeymoon, following which they will make their home in Seattle.

For her wedding gown the bride chose white brocaded satin in traditional bridal mode, with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline lily-point sleeves and full skirt, en train. From a halo of orange blossoms in her hair cascaded a long veil extending over her train, and a short chapel veil.

She wore a groom's gift of diamond earrings and her shower bouquet was of rapture roses, white hyacinth and white heather.

Senior bridal attendants were Miss Jean Murray and Miss Doreen Muford, and Miss Pamela Slater was junior bridesmaid. All three wore gowns of pale blue brocaded silk with fitted bodices and very full overskirts of pale blue net trimmed with bands of blue ribbon just above the hemline. Their crownless picture hats of mohair were of matching blue.

Miss Murray and Miss Muford carried bouquets of pink carnations, blue hyacinths and daisies of white stocks, while Miss Slater carried a colonial bouquet of pink and blue flowers.

The groom had his twin brother, James Chiarelli, as best man, and twin brothers of the bride, Howard and Fred Ruffell, ushered, with Vincent and Edward Chiarelli, brothers of the groom.

The nuptial service was read by Dr. A. E. Whitehouse. The church was decorated for the occasion with plum blossoms and pink and white carnations. Soloist during the signing of the register was J. Oakman.

Pink and white theme was again carried out in floral decorations at the home of the bride's parents, 3055 Rutland Road, where a reception was held, following the ceremony. Mrs. Ruffell, wearing a blue floor-length gown and a cream colored hat, and Mrs. Chiarelli in a grey floor-length gown, assisted the bride party in receiving guests.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. E. Milne of Vancouver.

As she left for her honeymoon following the reception, Mrs. Chiarelli wore a bride's blue suit with a navy topcoat, navy mohair hat and accessories. A corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley completed her ensemble.

To honor Miss Gloria Stokes, an April bride-elect, Mrs. C. Dale, Miss Orsa Marie Douglas and Miss Louise Dale were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the home of the former, 2096 Dalhousie Street. On her arrival Miss Stokes was presented with a corsage bouquet of a white gardenia and split carnations, while her mother, Mrs. G. Stokes, received deep pink carnations en corsage. Along with these resolutions is one recommending that Prime Minister Mackenzie King be commended for his valuable standards in the Liberal party, and another that congratulations be sent to Premier Byron Johnson with the compliments of the Victoria Liberal Women's Association.

Delegates to the conference in Vancouver will be Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A.; Mrs. J. L. Gates, vice-president of the Provincial Liberal Association; Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. Blair Reid, Mrs. F. E. Dowdall and Mrs. R. Standerwick.

Mrs. R. Standerwick announced that more than $100 had been collected for the bursary fund and it was decided that a bursary of $50 would be presented each year to the two top-ranking student nurses completing first year in St. Joseph's and the Royal Jubilee Hospitals.

"These walls," said Dan, "are spick and span."
His paint job suited him.
But wife did not - and pointed out
The woodwork, floors and trim.

"To make it neat - do job complete,
MONAMEL's needed now
Upon the floor, on trim and door -
Then you can take your bow!"

Now Dan is through, the bedroom's new
About it he can boast.
The woodwork bright will stay just right
With its MONAMEL coat.

Findings Announced From Y.W.C.A. Conference

That complete maturity is a goal to be desired; that people should not be satisfied with living on an animal plane but should desire something more spiritual and that we should strive to be in harmony with all ages of both sexes, all religions and all races, were conclusions arrived at Sunday morning at sessions of the Spring Regional Conference of the Y.W.C.A. These findings from Saturday's workshops, given by three Vancouver delegates, stressed that if we do not mature emotionally in our relations with those about us, we can go nowhere.

Mrs. W. C. Rean, president, National Council of the Y.W.C.A., spoke at the Sunday morning sessions, also Mrs. A. Tuttle, chairman, younger membership committee.

The conference concluded at noon.

Miss Agnes Roy Speaks At Banquet

Miss Agnes Roy of Toronto, assistant general secretary, National Y.W.C.A., speaking at the banquet which wound up activities of the first day of the Spring Regional Conference, said that "an adult or mature Christian citizen must have intellectual, emotional, social and moral maturity."

Intellectual and maturity she described as meaning an education for living as well as to make one's mind; tolerance of the views of others; willingness to take responsibility; the ability to look to things objectively and achievement of a workable compromise with life.

The most important fact of emotional security was being able to accept one's limitations, she said, and then described social maturity as being able to further one's education without supervision and to feel security in friendship.

Moral maturity she described as meaning the following a code based on the Christian teachings and acquiring habits by principle and experience.

Prior to the address, Dr. Olga Jardine, president of the Victoria Y.W.C.A., welcomed visitors and introduced Mrs. Walter Rean, president of the National Council Y.W.C.A., who brought greetings. Alderman Aubrey Kent gave greetings from the City of Victoria.

Miss Helen Asher of Vancouver, Inter-Club Council president, presided at the banquet and a sing-song was led by Miss Vera Gilchrist, also of Vancouver.

Miss Betty Dempsey Honored At Shower

Mrs. C. A. Argall, Mrs. James Richmond and Mrs. J. P. Dempsey were co-hostesses at Cherry Bank, on Friday, with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Betty Dempsey, who is to be married next Saturday.

During the evening Mrs. Stanley Edwards gave two solos. Refreshments were served. Mrs. W. C. Buckle and Mrs. P. Wrigley presided at the urns and Mrs. E. Braley, Mrs. E. Fullerton, Mrs. G. Argall, Mrs. A. Cameron and Miss Jean Randall, assisted the hostesses as servers.

THE MIRACLE DRUG

GERHARD DOMAGK completed his formula for a drug to wipe out Streptococci in 1932; but it was so unbelievable that these experiments could be 100% effective, that the results were not published until two years later, after being checked and rechecked. Domagk's discovery was Sulfanilamide, for which he won the Nobel Prize in 1939. It bids fair to accomplish for Streptococci and other infections results unsurpassed in the drug treatment of disease since the discovery of Quinine and constitutes one of the great triumphs in Medical History.

Sulfon drugs are your doctor's constant ally in fighting such diseases as meningitis, pneumonia and streptococcal infections. We are proud to supply them and all other high quality drugs your doctor may prescribe.

If you have children—
consider this

Many men are now buying Insurance Policies for their teen age children and for children even younger. They buy them to provide money for children's higher education or to provide capital for the starting of a modest business; as well as for protection.

Sometimes there is an understanding between father and son that when the son earns enough to pay all or part of the premiums, he will do so. This compact between father and son works out well. It teaches thrift to the young man and strengthens his sense of responsibility.

If you have a boy or girl a Confederation Life Representative will be glad to show you what can be done along the lines here suggested and within the compass of your means. Your inquiry will bring a competent representative to see you about it.

Soviet Newspaper In Berlin Says Western Allies Must Get Out

By WES GALLAGHER
BERLIN (AP)—Ten days of intense Soviet action apparently based on a policy of trial and error have turned Berlin into a potential 1948 Danzig.

Veteran diplomats here feel it is a policy which may blunder the world into another war no one wants.

At any time during the last 10 days a nervous Russian, British, French or United States soldier toting a tommygun might have fired shots as disastrous as those at Sarajevo in 1914. The shots would not have been on any government order, but the results could have been the same.

As the situation now stands the shots were not fired. The situation is a stalemate. It is quieted for the time being. Ten years ago from belligerent Berlin Adolf Hitler screamed to the world that the international city of Danzig must be returned to Germany.

A year later the first shots of World War II echoed in Danzig streets.

Today rubble-strewn Berlin is an international city. Like Danzig, it is a pawn between the great powers.

This time the Germans are silent, but the demands are similar to those 10 years ago. Not far from Hitler's balcony stands the Zimmer Street home of Berlin's Soviet-controlled newspaper. It does the thundering. The words are different, but the tune is familiar. It goes like this:

"The excuse for Berlin being an international city is ended. It is in the Soviet zone. It belongs to the Soviet occupation area. The western Allies must get out." The Russians say four-power government of Germany is dead. They say four-power government is the only reason for the western Allies being in Berlin.

The western powers maintain they have just as much right in Berlin as the Soviet Union. They argue it is just as another part of their occupation area, even though it is behind the Iron Curtain.

Physically the Allied Control Council still exists. But there has not been a major agreement in two years among the big four. Since March, 20 there has not been an Allied Control Council meeting.

Unless someone asks, Control Council machinery will exist in mothballs.

This development has had two results:

The first is that the Soviets have taken the initial steps to squeeze the western powers out of Berlin.

The second is that with four-power machinery dormant the partition of Germany is certain. Such partition means the western powers will speed the establishment of some sort of a western German state. The Russians will set up similar machinery in the eastern zone.

British officials accuse the Soviets of trying to strangle Berlin's trade and commerce with the west.

The Russians claim their restrictions are to halt the Allies from "pillaging" Berlin and using their trains to smuggle so-called criminal elements in and out of the Soviet zone.

Plans Overhaul Of Libel Law

OTTAWA (CP)—Justice Minister Ilesley is planning an overhaul of Canada's libel law to prevent a possible recurrence of the Cooke-Dingman-Whitton indictments, an authoritative source said today.

The source said Mr. Ilesley will introduce in the Commons within the next few days a bill amending the Criminal Code to provide that persons charged with libel or "counselling, aiding, conferring or conspiring" to libel be tried only in the province in which the libel allegedly was committed.

It is understood the bill is designed to halt any possible repetition of the libel case in which Jack Kent Cooke, publisher of New Liberty magazine, Toronto; Harold Dingman, New Liberty writer in Ottawa, and Dr. Charlotte Whitton, welfare authority, Ottawa, appeared in the Supreme Court of Alberta on charges of "counselling" and "conspiracy" to commit a defamatory libel.

Mr. Cooke was charged with "counselling and conspiracy," while Mr. Dingman and Dr. Whitton were charged with "conspiracy" to libel in connection with an article in the Dec. 17 issue of the magazine entitled "Babies For Export." The article was alleged to have defamed the Alberta Child Welfare Commission and its members—Chairman C. B. Hill, Alexander H. Miller, C. F. Willis and Clara Frizzell.

On the "counselling" charge, Mr. Cooke was acquitted. The common indictment on "conspiracy" to libel was stayed last Monday at the request of the Crown.

Machinery Ready For Election In Canada This Year

OTTAWA (CP)—Whether or not it calls one, the government will have the machinery oiled up for a general election this year.

While voluminous amendments to the Dominion Elections Act will have to be passed at the current session of Parliament, the administration has arranged it so that the electoral equipment will function as smoothly as though nothing had happened.

On instructions from the government, electoral office officials have brought all their material up to date on the basis of 100 or so amendments pending before Parliament but not yet passed. Many of these are necessitated by last year's redistribution of constituencies.

When these are adopted, along with some further but minor amendments expected to develop before the House elections committee, all that will be necessary will be to whip the prepared material off to the printers.

Because of this advance work, an election will be possible within three months of the passage of the Election Act amendments.

5 Cities Show 1.2 Points Increase In Living Costs

OTTAWA (CP) — The Dominion Bureau of Statistics released at the week-end cost-of-living indexes for eight regional cities for March, with comparisons for Feb. 2 and March 1 last year.

Five of the eight cities—Halifax, Saint John, N.B., Montreal, Winnipeg, and Saskatoon—showed increases of 1.2 points between Feb. 2 and March 1, while Edmonton moved up .08 points and Vancouver advanced one point. Toronto recorded the smallest change, a rise of .03 points.

The bureau said that in interpreting the city indexes it should be understood they compare changes in living costs in each city but do not compare actual levels of living costs as between cities. It is incorrect to conclude on the basis of these indexes that it costs more to live in one city than it does in another.

The comparable Dominion cost-of-living index, on the base August, 1939, equals 100 was 149.6 for March 1.

The following table shows the city cost-of-living indexes:

	March 1	Feb. 2	March 1
Halifax	126.7	144.2	145.2
Saint John	126.9	147.7	148.9
Montreal	126.8	122.8	124.9
Toronto	126.9	147.8	148.1
Winnipeg	124.9	144.4	145.1
Saskatoon	130.2	131.9	132.1
Edmonton	129.0	148.1	148.9
Vancouver	129.0	148.7	149.7

7 Victorians Among 'Old Timers' Serving Aboard Cruiser Ontario

On Board H.M.C.S. Ontario at Sea — Thirteen men, including seven Victorians, from the original ship's company of H.M.C.S. Ontario are back for another turn of duty aboard their old ship.

They took part in the final mopping up in the Far East in the summer of 1945, and are proud of the fact that their former captain is the present Chief of Naval Staff, Vice-Admiral H. T. W. Grant, D.B.E., D.S.C., R.C.N.

Of the 13, three are considered to be the oldest old-timers of the group, for they have served continuously aboard Ontario since early in 1945. They were present at the commissioning ceremonies in Belfast, at the allied occupation of Hongkong, at Esquimalt when Ontario was paid off and placed under refit, and realized one of the proudest moments of their naval careers when their modern 9,000-ton cruiser returned to active service in July, 1947.

Ldg. St. Norman Martin, Chilliwack, holds the distinction of being Ontario's longest serving man. He was part of the advance party which joined Ontario in Belfast, Jan. 17, 1945, to ready the ship for commissioning three months later. Next in line is PO. John Carliou, Victoria, who racked up his third year of Ontario service on Feb. 23 of this year. Last of the trio is PO. Robert Smith, Calgary, who joined the ship April 24, 1945, two days before she officially became H.M.C.S. Ontario.

"Shortly after we got back to Canada in November, '45," says PO. Bob Smith, "a lot of the boys were drafted to other ships and shore bases and, of course, the V.R.'s were demobilized." Ldg.

Sto. Martin added that "it sure would be interesting to find out where most of them are now. I'd like to hear from them," as PO. Carliou nodded in agreement.

The other 10 members of Ontario's original crew who are again serving in this ship were among those who went to other ships and establishments following Ontario's return from the Far East. When Ontario was brought back into operational service in July, 1947, among the men who carried their kit bags and hammocks over the gangway of their "new" ship were six of her old-timers to add to the "Original Three" as they called themselves. The remaining four came aboard at intervals ranging between the summer of 1947 to a few days before Ontario sailed on her present three-month training cruise.

In response to the Appeal for Children in Europe, Yarrows Ltd. employees set out to collect $1,000, and Saturday a cheque for that amount was mailed to the provincial head office in Vancouver. It was made up as follows: Yarrows Ltd., $250; H. A. Wallace, $100; employees, $656.36.

Southworth's Braves Definite Title Threat

(BY JOE REICHLER)

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Southworth, smart little leader of Boston Braves, is like the horse which has drawn the No. 1 position at the getaway post. He is in an enviable spot.

While Leo Durocher of the defending National League champions, Brooklyn Dodgers, and Edlie Dwyer of last year's runner-up St. Louis Cardinals are busy watching each other, the canny Southworth is in position to sneak right past those two to give the Braves their first league championship in 34 years.

There is no doubt the Braves are an improved club over the 1947 third-placers.

Not only are the Dodgers and Cardinals in danger of being bypassed by the Braves but may find themselves looking up into the heels of the murderous hitting New York Giants. In fact, after touring the Florida regions, this observer believes that the Dodgers will be hard pressed to stave off Cincinnati's bid for a first division berth.

GREAT CELLAR FIGHT

Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Chicago should engage in a wild scramble to stay out of the cellar. In our opinion, the National League race shapes up like this:

1. Boston.
2. New York.
3. St. Louis.
4. Brooklyn.
5. Cincinnati.
6. Pittsburgh.
7. Philadelphia.
8. Chicago.

Why can the Braves finish on top—something they have accomplished only once since 1900? Here are the reasons:

1. A pitching staff that may be the best in the league. It contains the only two 1947 pitchers on one club to reach 20 or more victories. Southworth thinks Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain.

Maple Leafs Within Victory Of Stanley Cup

Goalie Turk Broda Brilliant In Shutout Win Over Detroit Red Wings

DETROIT (CP)—Three up and one to go—that was the happy position of Toronto Maple Leafs today in their best-of-seven final series against Detroit Red Wings for the Stanley Cup and the world's professional hockey championship.

The Leafs scored a 4 to 2 victory in a bruising game at Toronto Saturday and came right back at Detroit Sunday for a 2 to 0 shutout. The first game at Toronto last Wednesday ended in a 5 to 3 win for Leafs.

That means the Toronto team that edged Detroit for the National Hockey League title before opening the cup playoffs in straight games by winning the fourth game here Wednesday night.

Big Harry Watson, formerly of Detroit, and Vic Lynn, both leftwingers, scored the only goals last night as Walter (Turk) Broda in the Toronto nets turned in one of the finest games of his career to earn the shutout.

Watson scored in the dying seconds of the middle period on a pass from Bill Ezinicki, and Lynn scored on a pass from Kennedy with the last period three-quarters gone.

The Wings never gave up trying and cheered a home-town crowd of 14,165 with a desperate third-period offensive that saw Broda unbeatable.

LEAFS TOO GOOD

Jack Adams of Detroit was amazingly judicious after he saw his Wings pushed to the brink of elimination. "We played well," he said. "It looked like we gave them everything we had, but it just wasn't enough. It was a good, hard hockey game and I couldn't ask for more."

Both Wings and Leafs agreed Sunday's game was even tougher than the second game at Toronto, marked Saturday night by a series of fights.

In the Toronto game Max Bentley of Leafs scored the only first period goal and Ezinicki and Bentley made it 3 to 0 before Pete Horeck scored for Detroit, with Watson beating Lumley again to make it 4 to 1 for Toronto going into the last period. Fernand Gauthier got Detroit's other goal.

Gauthier and Bill Bariklo of Toronto drew majors for fighting in the first period. Howie Meeker of Toronto and Gord Howe of Toronto and both earned majors.

GOALIES DRAW FINES

Then after the final whistle Joe Klukay of Toronto tangled with Jimmy Conacher, and the two goalies joined the argument with fists swinging. That outbreak brought misconduct penalties for the heavily-padded netmen, and being imposed in the last 10 minutes of the game, the penalties carried an automatic $25 fine.

The second period had only 18 seconds left when the scoreless tie was broken by Watson, who came in fast to pick up the pass dropped neatly for him by Ezinicki only 10 feet from the Detroit goal. Toronto's other goal was also a picture play as Lynn raced into the corner of the Detroit cage and made no mistakes on Kennedy's pass, while Lumley was out of position for the shot.

Seven penalties, all minors, were handed out in the first period but there were only two more during the night.

SATURDAY GAME
First Period—Toronto, Bentley (Sains), 13:11. Penalties—Lynn, Watson, Bariklo (major), Gauthier (major), Horeck (minor).
Second Period—2, Toronto, Ezinicki (Horeck, Watson), 2:35; 3, Toronto, Bentley (Gauthier, Bariklo), 10:49. Penalties—McNab, Abel, Lynn (minor and misconduct), Horeck, Howe (major), Meeker (minor).
Third Period—4, Detroit, Gauthier (McNab), 17:19. Penalties—Horeck, Bariklo, Horeck, Lumley (misconduct), Broda (misconduct).

SUNDAY GAME
First Period—Scoring, none. Penalties—Pavlich, Bariklo, Abel, Watson, Fogelin, Sains, Lynn.
Second Period—1, Toronto, Watson (Ezinicki), 19:02. Penalties—Johnson (major), Abel (minor).
Third Period—2, Toronto, Lynn (Kennedy), 15:16. Penalties—None.

Bays Drop B.C. Rugby Final To North Shore

A strong second-half offensive which netted two converted tries and a penalty goal gave North Shore All-Blacks a 9 to 5 victory over J.B.A.A. Saturday afternoon and possession of the Rounsfel Cup, emblematic of B.C. rugby supremacy.

The game was hard but cleanly fought with both fifteen taking advantage of the wind and holding a decided edge in play when playing with the breeze at their backs.

North Shore opened with a rush in the first few minutes of the match to pin the Bays inside the 25-yard line but the tide of fortune switched rapidly and soon Bays were hammering at pay dirt. Dick Chunggranes came within an ace of scoring for the locals at the five-minute mark but was forced out on the one-foot line.

After one Victoria score was called back for a forward pass, Chunggranes went over near the posts on a pretty play started by Fred Ranson. Ranson cut through the North Shore defence for 40 yards passing to Chunggranes who went over untouched. Tom McKeachip split the uprights with the conversion. Bays came close on numerous other sports but the All-Blacks threw back every challenge.

40-YARD KICK

With the start of the second half North Shore took up the offensive and were rewarded minutes later when Don Wilson scored on a 40-yard penalty goal. Harold Stackhouse then picked his way down the sidelines following a Victoria clearance to score near the flag and give Vancouver the lead at 6 to 5.

It was Stackhouse again who put the match on ice for the winners by picking up a loose ball and powering his way 15 yards for the second try. Wilson's attempted conversion hit the upright from a difficult angle.

With time running out Bays stormed to the attack and but for some fine defensive work by North Shore might have pulled the game out of the fire. George Langdon almost scored on one attempt but was pulled down about three yards from the line. Awarded a penalty kick Bays elected to try for a major score with a high punt and follow up but All-Blacks cleared successfully and had brought play to midfield when the game ended.

Dave Crockett was probably the outstanding player on the field for both units. His tackling was deadly all afternoon. Stars for the victorious All-Blacks were Stackhouse, Wilson and Barney Kirby. The latter was extremely dangerous often dragging several Victoria tacklers with him on his many long gallops.

In a Cowichan Cup match Canadian Scottish senior fifteen rolled up a 48 to 0 victory over the intermediate Fifth Regiment squad.

Harmon Equals Record To Win Masters' Golf

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The 12th annual Masters' golf tournament is over, but not the memory of dark-horse Claude Harmon's victory with a record-equaling 279.

For Harmon, a stocky professional, the triumph yesterday was worth $2,500. His 279 tied the Masters' record set by Ralph Guldahl in 1939.

The 31-year-old Harmon who put together rounds of 70, 70, 69 and 70, came in five strokes ahead of Cary Middlecott of Memphis, Tenn.

Harmon's winning score was 36 strokes ahead of the most famous of them all, Bobby Jones, making his annual tournament appearance, registered another 79 Sunday for a 72-hole total of 315, his worst competitive showing.

In third place with 287 was Chick Harbert of Detroit.

Tied for fourth and matching par of 288 were Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, the first day's leader, and Jim Ferrier, also of Chicago, and Jim Ferrier, also of Chicago, and Jim Ferrier, also of Chicago.

Defending champion Jimmy

Demaret of Ojai, Calif., was down in the 295 bracket with Vic Ghezzi of Kansas City, Fred Haas, Jr. of New Orleans, Ed Dudley of Augusta and Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind.

Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., was tied with Ed Furgol of Pontiac, Mich., at 289. Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Tex., and the leader at the halfway mark, Harry Todd of Dallas, Tex., shared the 290 spot.

Bobby Locke, the putting wizard from Johannesburg, South Africa, had to be satisfied with a 291. Henry Cotton, the threat from London, wobbled through the final round with a 77 for a 297 total.

Cleveland Barons Win Hockey Title In Straight Games

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Cleveland Barons today held the American Hockey League playoff championship for the fourth time in the circuit's 12-year history.

The Barons clinched the Calder Cup last night with a convincing 6 to 2 victory over Buffalo Bisons. It was the Barons' fourth straight victory in their best-of-seven playoff series.

Left winger Church Russell chalked up two goals to spearhead a third-period four-goal Baron attack. The rally came after the teams tied with a goal apiece in the first and again in the second period. A crowd of 9,961 saw the game.

George Allen scored unassisted to break 2 to 2 tie about eight minutes after the final period started. Russell took a pass from Gordie Davidson and drove it into the net and less than four minutes later scored on a power play set up by Fred Thurier and Jack Laviole. Laviole then racked up the final Baron goal.

The Bisons had the game's first goal on Jerry Brown's blast, but Allen made it 1 to 1 before the period ended.

Les Douglas put the Bisons ahead, 2 to 1, in the second period and Thurier netted a shot to deadlock the game again. The Barons, who lost but one of their last 36 games, had trounced the Bisons, 6 to 1, and then edged out a 5 to 3 victory in Cleveland before the series shifted here. The Clevelanders took the first game here, 3 to 1.

Tenders Opened For Paving 40 Miles Of Island Roads

Tenders for the first paving work during the 1948 construction season, including more than 40 miles on the Island Highway and Alberni Road, were opened today by Works Minister E. C. Carson.

The Vancouver Island work includes 16.6 miles on the Island Highway from Red Gap to Qualicum, six miles in the neighborhood of Union Bay and 20 miles from Parksville to Cathedral Grove on the Alberni Road.

Lowest tender for this work was submitted by the General Construction Co. Ltd., which is building the road from Parksville to Qualicum, and the second dam for the B.C. Power Commission's John Hart Development at Campbell River. The Vancouver firm tendered to do the work for $225,420.

Tenders were also submitted for this job by Columbia Bitulithic Ltd., $230,400, and Dawson, Wade & Co. Ltd., $237,925.

A permanent pavement, 24 feet wide of the plant mix type, is called for. It is expected the contract will be awarded shortly.

Tenders for paving on the Southern Trans-Provincial Highway were also opened. This work, which will total 55-miles, includes sections between Keremeos and Hedley, between Hedley and Princeton and between Keremeos and Kaleden.

Lowest bid for this section was submitted by Dawson, Wade & Co. Ltd., $271,450. Only other bid was submitted by Storms Contracting Co. (Pacific) Ltd., $283,880.

The surfacing will be financed by the three cent a gallon gasoline tax taken over by the province last year from the Dominion government.

At the same time Mr. Carson opened three bids for the construction of a courthouse at Burns Lake. These bids were as follows: Bayliss & Hann, $32,215; Mitchell & Currie Ltd., $34,597; and Associated Engineering Co. Ltd., $64,954.

Gyros Told Of Experience With 'Quiet' Forger

"A Lesson in Being Gullible" was the topic of an address given by R. V. "Bud" Hocking to fellow members of the Victoria Gyro Club at their regular weekly meeting held at noon today in Loughheed's Banquet Club.

Mr. Hocking's remarks concerned two youthful hitch-hikers he offered rides to while motor-ing through the United States last year on a business trip.

"I picked them up in Indiana," Mr. Hocking recalled. "They were a funny pair—one was a real tough guy and the other was quiet, but sort of dumb. I had the feeling the tough one was going to start trouble; he was always looking for a fight. But nothing happened."

Both youths told Mr. Hocking they wanted to get to the west coast. Neither had any money with them, although the quiet one said he had some in Los Angeles.

"Neither of them asked me to, but because they had no money, I bought them meals. When he got to Los Angeles, the quiet one thanked me for the ride and said he would be coming to Victoria to see me," the speaker said.

The youth kept his promise a month or so afterwards, Mr. Hocking recalled. "He arrived on the morning boat. I showed him around the city. He thanked me and told me he would be leaving on the afternoon boat."

"Several months later he sent me a picture post card from Detroit," Mr. Hocking said. "It figured he was a nice kid who was 'lonely—I sure figured it wrong. Soon afterwards, his picture was in all the papers with stories telling how he had been traveling all over the place, passing off forged cheques."

He had cashed cheques amounting to close to $23,000 in Michigan, California and other states. "According to the stories he even cashed some bad cheques in Victoria, probably on the day he came to see me," Mr. Hocking said.

"It goes to show you, you never can tell," he concluded. "I picked up two boys and because one acted tough I thought he was bad. The other one, because he was quiet, I thought was all right. Yet all the time he was passing off bad cheques."

"That was my lesson in being gullible."

A general meeting of the 18th Battalion, C.E.F. Association (3rd Canadian Pioneers), will be held at 1231 Government Street, Wednesday at 8.

'Y' Holds Pacific Northwest Assembly

Registering for the assembly are Bob Hungerford, Portland; Betty Hansen, Portland; Clifford Cunningham, Seattle, and Florence Otherson, Vancouver.

Ninety members of the Y.M.C.A. Young Adult Assembly from many points in the Pacific Northwest were guests of the Victoria Y.M.C.A. at the annual meeting of the assembly during the week-end.

Visiting delegates were welcomed by Mayor Percy E. George at a dinner in the Empress Hotel Saturday night. Harold T. Friermood, national physical training director of the Y.M.C.A. from New York, was speaker.

Friermood advocated sound health habits as an aid to personal and leisure time interests. Necessity of a greater leadership training program in the Y.M.C.A. and an educational program for young adults in preparation for marriage and adult life was stressed at the conference of the assembly. Importance of hobby-crafts for members over 30 years of age and necessity of learning how to be popular was another important factor discussed.

In an effort to have various groups of the assembly work in a more closely knit fashion, many intercity get-togethers will be planned during the coming year.

First such planned is the proposed tennis tournament here between Victoria and Vancouver units. Quarterly bulletins will be issued by the assembly with Victoria to publish the first bulletin.

A large contingent of Phalanx Club members in attendance at the general assembly held a special meeting Saturday.

Dick Welsh of Vancouver was elected chairman of the assembly for the coming year with Florence Otherson of Vancouver, vice-chairman. Next year's assembly will be held in Portland.

Rev. William Hills addressed the group at both opening and closing luncheons. Col. C. W. Devey was guest speaker at the morning meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Sunday.

Saanich lost one of its early residents on Sunday when Mrs. Mary Anderson, widow of the late Robert Anderson, passed peacefully away after a brief illness. She was in her 90th year, having been born near London, Ont., the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Munro.

At the age of five, along with seven brothers and sisters, she went with her parents by sailing vessel to Scotland, and thence to New Zealand, where they visited for a time with relatives, after which the family of ten came to Victoria in 1870 by way of Honolulu and San Francisco. They took up residence on James Island.

Mrs. Anderson first settled in Saanich after her first marriage in 1878 to the late John Dawson, and has resided at Keating continuously except for a period following the accidental death of Mr. Dawson.

Mrs. Anderson was a member of the Saanich Pioneer Society and her keen and vivid memory contributed many interesting details to archives of the society.

The body is at Hayard's B.C. Funeral Co. where funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 1:30, after which burial will take place at Shady Creek Cemetery.

Coal Up 25 Cents A Ton As Freight Boost Effective

All varieties of coal, with the exception of Island coal which increased April 7, went up an additional 25 cents a ton in Victoria today owing to the increase in transportation costs.

Following the settlement of the strike of Vancouver Island coal miners, coal went up $1.65, to $1.85 a ton, with increased cost including the 25 cent boost for transportation. It was realized that the transportation increase would be put into effect before any coal reached the Victoria or Vancouver market, one dealer said, in explaining the inclusion

Societies Observe Arrival Of First Saanich Woman

The 90th anniversary of the arrival of the first white woman in Saanich was commemorated jointly by members of the Saanich Pioneer Society and British Columbia Historical Association, Victoria Branch, at a ceremony and reception Sunday.

The meeting place was on the slopes of Mount Newton, the site where the first farmhouse was erected in 1858. In a dwelling which still stands today, Mrs. William Thomson, nee Margaret Dyer, lived and helped her husband open up a thickly wooded district.

When she first settled in Saanich, Mrs. Thomson was a young Scotch girl of 16 years. She later raised a family of 15 children.

The original farmhouse is still occupied by one of her children, Mrs. H. S. Hughes. The dwelling, though renovated, still retains its pioneer atmosphere. The lower part of the house was built of stones, the upper of wood.

Many of Mrs. Thomson's grandchildren and relatives were at the ceremony which was attended by more than 150 members of the two historical societies. Willard E. Ireland, secretary of B.C. Historical Association, Victoria Branch, read a paper on the first pioneers to settle in Saanich.

Barbara Ann Gets Picture Offers From 4 Major Studios

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Barbara Ann Scott may follow in Sonja Henie's ice tracks, The Canadian ice queen has had offers from four major studios, says dance director Leroy Prinz, who is her adviser on movie matters. If the Ottawa champion does turn professional, the first order of business would be a United States skating tour.

(Last week Miss Scott said she would not sign any movie contracts until she had completed her present commitments to appear in amateur skating carnivals. She said she was booked up until May 8. An Ottawa report said Miss Scott had been offered a chance to appear with dancer Fred Astaire.)

Michael Kirby, who languished at M.G.M. for two years, is definitely signed as Miss Henie's co-star in "The Countess of Monte Cristo." He's also her current skating partner.

ALONG THE MOVIE BEAT

Charles Boyer has recovered enough from his bursitis attack to travel and he leaves this week to attend the New York premiere of "Arch of Triumph."

Maria Montez, who has been off the screen too long for the good of her career, will get into action soon. She'll do some added scenes of the long-finished "Atlantis" and then start an independent film, "Last Year's Snow."

Bing Crosby finished his chore in Disney's "Two Fabulous Characters" and will head east. When his boys do their acting jobs for the film next August, they'll be the first to use Walt's new sound stage, which he claims is the world's largest. The story has the boys at a Halloween party on a rainy night. Instead of going out, they listen to a radio personality named Crosby recite the Ichabod Crane yarn. After that, they're too scared to go out.

ODDS AND ENDS

Shirley Temple is another star heading for New York. It will be one of her few trips to the big town. Red Skelton's "A Southern Yankee" is going back for a couple of weeks' retakes. Meanwhile, Red is spending most of his time with the circus while it is in town.

2 Adventure Films On Double Bill

Two Warner Bros. adventure stories of the high seas, "The Sea Hawk" and "The Sea Wolf," comprise the new bill opening today at the York-International.

Heading the cast of "The Sea Hawk," directed by Michael Curtiz, is Errol Flynn.

Rex Harrison Enjoys Haunting Revenge

Rex Harrison, normally a gentle, magnanimous soul, says he enjoyed revenge in Twentieth Century-Fox's "The Gay Ghost and Mrs. Muir," in which he is starred with Gene Tierney and George Sanders, and which opens today at the Atlas Theatre.

The subject came up when Gene, who plays "Mrs. Muir" to Harrison's "Ghost," asked whether he's ever played a "haunt" before.

"No," Rex replied, "but I had a ghostly wife who gave me a lot of trouble in the picture, 'Blythe Spirit,' which is why I get diabolical joy out of haunting everyone in this film."

'The Chase' Great Mystery Picture

One of the most fascinating mysteries of the cinema season is unravelled in the new Seymour Nebenzal drama, "The Chase," which opens at the Oak Bay Theatre today through United Artists release. Starring in the film is Robert Cummings, with the lovely French actress, Michele Morgan, in the feminine lead.

"The Chase" was adapted by Philip Yordan, author of the successful Broadway play, "Anna Lucasta," from the exciting Cornell Woodrich novel.

Amusing Comedy Held At Dominion

When a dignified county justice of the peace is lured by an angler friend in the darkness of the night to test the fish-poaching capabilities of a disreputable servant who uses gasoline torches and spears to land his prey, and the same chairman of the bench, after a wild night during which he is precipitated fully clothed into the river in attempting to elude the police, and next day forced into passing judgment on the poacher with whom he had been identified in the escape, there are bound to be complications of a highly amusing nature.

This is but one of the highly entertaining situations developed in the delightful English comedy, "Quiet Weekend," now showing for the second week at the Dominion Theatre, featuring Derek Farr and Marjorie Fielding. It is a refreshing story of English country life in the Berkshire Hills.

Famed 'Gentleman's Agreement' At Royal

"Gentleman's Agreement," based on Laura Z. Hobson's sensational best-seller, opens today at the Royal Theatre.

Among the top-drawer cast of Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire, John Garfield, Anne Revere and Jane Wyatt, several of whom were former nominees, Anne Revere had the coveted "Oscar" for her fine performance in "National Velvet."

On the technical end, the cast and Director Elia Kazan, who himself was nominated for "A Free Guy in Brooklyn," were surrounded by award winners.

For uniformly high quality production, Darryl F. Zanuck, production chief at Twentieth Century-Fox studios, won the Irving Thalberg Award in 1938 and again in 1945.

Soviet Film At Rio Draws Attention

"Pageant of Russia," now showing at the Rio, was originally scheduled to open in Canada in November. However, since this is one of the most impressive films ever to come out of the Soviet Union, the theatre management decided to make every effort to present the film as early as possible.

It was not easy. Because of the high development of Soviet color films, no laboratory on this continent is able to make copies. All prints must come from the studios in Moscow.

Gail Russell and Guy Madison have found an apartment and she is decorating it. You can expect those long-awaited wedding bells to be tolling soon. "Winter Meeting" (Warners) can best be termed a Bette Davis picture. This time she is a Yankee spinster in a brief but frenzied romance with a naval hero (Jim Davis).

T-Men' Sensational Film At Capitol

A power-packed expose based on authentic cases from Treasury Department files is "T-Men," which begins an engagement today at the Capitol Theatre.

Dennis O'Keefe is starred in a tough and virile role as a T-Man, which is short for Treasury Man.

The supporting cast is headed by Mary Meade, attractive film newcomer; Alfred Ryder, New York stage actor; Wally Ford, screen veteran character player; June Lockhart, current hit of the Broadway stage and star of "The Yearling"; and Charles McGraw, of "Killers" fame.

ODEON THEATRE

The celebrated Kanin brothers, Michael and Garson, manage to keep a step ahead of public tastes in entertainment, as is evidenced by "A Double Life," their initial Universal-International release which is the current attraction at the Odeon Theatre.

A recent poll taken of Broadway theatre audiences revealed that of 12 plays they would most like to see, eight were from the pen of William Shakespeare.

There's a liberal sprinkling of Shakespeare in "A Double Life," which went before the cameras before the Broadway poll was taken.

Rangers' Bloodhound Proves Ability To Nose Out Persons Lost In Wilds

By "CAP" THORSEN

A crowd of invited guests and members Sunday got a good idea of the value and efficiency of the postwar model of the South Vancouver Island Rangers in their new role as lifesavers. Rangers demonstrated how they can act with an organized system in the field, properly supported, to save persons or injured in the hinterland.

What the gallery saw was not a real search for a person in SOS circumstances. It was merely a sample of some of the machinery which would be brought into operation in the event the Rangers were called on to take steps where humans were lost or incapacitated by injuries in the lower island wilds.

It is a system so designed that where one phase of the program fails to bring results desired, another can be brought into play. Spotlights in the make-believe yesterday was a dog named Sir Roderick of Ogden. From New Jersey, he is a man-tracking bloodhound of the purest strain on the continent.

Acquired by the Rangers as a puppy at considerable expense, Sir Roderick has been trained by Ranger Reay Meldram for almost a year to take the trail and lead searchers to distress victims.

TRAIL 19 HOURS OLD

Although only 15 months old—and a bloodhound is not considered to be mature for this work until he is nearer three years—Rod did a good job on his first trial, pulling along his sweat-stained trainer at the other end of the leash on a trail about 19 hours old to the spot where fish and game inspector George Stevenson was posing as a wounded man who could not get out under his own steam.

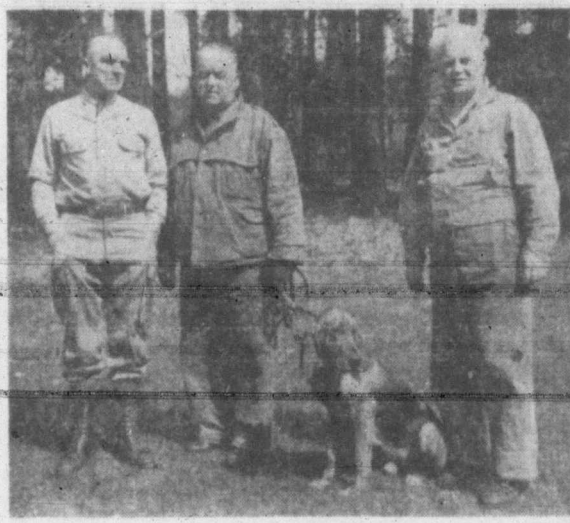

Scene of the staged scene was the 24-acre timbered property at Luxton owned by the Rangers.

It was a plan that won the commendation of the invited audience, which was composed chiefly of police and game wardens, "the two main forces involved in all searches, we learned on questioning individuals at the conclusion of 'Exercise Ogden'."

Many of those present, including the skilled Ranger woodsmen, had recollections of failures in the yesteryears to find lost or hurt humans in the island's rugged interior.

They saw the Ranger plan as one of the best hopes for success being written to emergencies of this nature that have materialized to date.

Inspector Stevenson was sup-

Fish and game inspector George Stevenson, left, who played role as "injured hunter"; Reay Meldram with bloodhound Sir Roderick of Ogden, and Leslie Wilby, emergency leader.

posed to have failed to return from a hunting trip. His distress rifle shots—19 and considered to have been all he carried—were heard in the Sooke Country by Ranger J. Tighe, watershed caretaker.

The law force immediately alerted the Rangers.

Actually what had happened was that the afternoon before the boss of the island game wardens went into the property to a certain spot on the trail known only to himself. From there he continued on, to come out for the night. Next morning he back-tracked over the "out trail" to the spot he had chosen to await developments.

All Rod had to do on to pick up the scent was a slipper found in the car of the missing hunter. Insp. Stevenson had a bouquet of words for the work the bloodhound had done in locating him.

LAUDS DOG'S WORK

"I looped and back-tracked. Because it was a hypothetical case I made my trail as difficult as possible by making out I was a real lost hunter and traveled around in circles."

"As far as I am personally concerned, the dog did a marvelous job," the newly-appointed game inspector said.

And apparently the dog had. Rod soon picked up the original trail from the hunter's car, and in spite of the fact the gallery of about 35 persons did a lot of tramping about in the places where the trail ran in circles and back-tracked, he kept with it.

An arrangement had been made with the man in the lost role that he was not to go outside the fences bordering the Ranger property.

But Insp. Stevenson in his desire to make things as tough as possible chose to disregard this. He went outside the property line.

Three times the bloodhound pulled Mr. Meldram to north fence. Each time the handler pulled him away. At one time even the trainer got a little dubious about the dog's ability. Finally the gallery was called to a halt. Mr. Meldram took the dog right back to the start point—and they again wound up at the fence.

Finally, it was decided to allow the dog its head. Sure enough, within a short time he had located the "injured" hunter.

ALL GENUINE

Entire show was performed as the "real McCoy." There was not a single faked feature.

While this mainly wrote the final chapter of the search scheme, the Rangers' detailed program involved a great deal more.

Rangers of today are a rebirth of the wartime unit of the militia service into a club, chiefly to maintain old friendships and keep the Ranger spirit alive.

Reborn shorn of the militia cloak, the Rangers retained wartime maps of the lower island showing trails, cabins and other features up to Renfrew and into the Cowichan country. Membership is composed chiefly of the "old guard," each group of which knows the different sections of the entire lower island like a book.

With this machinery at hand, they have informed police of their willingness to act in cases of lost or injured people in the woods. Where persons are in danger by forest fires they will rally to the call of the forestry department.

Main figures in the attendance Sunday included Deputy Commissioner Roger Peachey of the B.C. Police, also Inspector Robert Owens and Sgt. Chris Jacklin of that force; Reeve A. T. Thomas; E. A. "Ted" Estlin, scouting official; Sgt. Cecil Pearce, of Saanich Police and Game Wardens Joseph Jones.

Immediately after getting the S.O.S. at 10 Saturday night the emergency committee organized. All group leaders instructed their men to meet at an assembly point at 7 the next morning.

Thirteen Rangers, drawn from all city groups were equipped for service. Balance attended for "briefing" only.

Three Rangers were sent immediately to area where hunter was evidently in distress. A day-break the trio posted themselves at strategic spots for the purpose of keeping the area to be searched as clear of humans as possible. This to give the bloodhound a better chance of an early success.

Equipment ordered was four light axes and four packs.

The packs contained: No. 1—pack-type stretcher, first aid kit, hot water bottle, 12 tins of strained baby food vegetables and meat soups (this for lost persons if in weak condition).

No. 2—sleeping bag, ground sheet, 50-foot climbing rope.

No. 3—two days' emergency food for searchers, light cooking gear and two days' supply of dog food.

No. 4—six carrier pigeons

Gallery and members of the search group at the outset in the trial of one phase of the Rangers' program to locate persons lost or injured in the hinterland of the lower island.

(which in this case were borrowed for the purpose of "hom-ing" to the Luxton club property to provide communications from searching party to police headquarters.)

LES WILBY SEARCH BOSS

Group leader E. Merry at Leechtown was instructed to hold his group in readiness. A Ranger trailer in charge of Mat Ball was sent to point where missing hunter's car was found to establish a field kitchen. This acted as a search base. Emergency committee met and decided on plan of search.

Next morning at 7 Leslie Wilby, emergency chairman, briefed the group bosses, who in turn gave their groups the low-down on the whole plan of search with aid of the sectional operational map.

They were told the bloodhound would be tried in the search first. Should the dog fail, a full-scale man search would start in 24 hours, all Rangers to be ready for duty.

Fourteen Rangers were allotted for the search. This included the three bloodhound handlers and also two members of the junior group to be carefully coached in all phases of the search scheme.

At the scene of the search-start, Rangers assigned to participate allowed for distance in following so as not to press the dog. To enable the pack-carriers to follow at a more normal speed, axemen preceded them and "flash-blazed" the trail to be followed.

When found the injured man was examined by a first aid Ranger. His condition proved to necessitate a stretcher. Poles were cut, and the stretcher set up. The hunter was placed in the sleeping bag and strapped on the stretcher. The hotwater bottle was filled from a thermos of hot tea and placed by him.

The borrowed pigeons—Rangers will soon have their own—were released to carry back the message reporting success.

Axemen slashed out a trail for the stretcher party.

Rangers do not offer Roderick's services in case of a criminal nature. Their service is a voluntary one to save human life.

Head Ranger Gordon Sword and chairman of the executive Jack King had the task of arranging the demonstration. Should Mr. Meldram have tired, right behind him to handle the dog were Charles Taylor and T. D. Roberts. Axemen were Richard Nex, A. W. Luney, Lorne Woodley, Hugh Aylmer and K. Wilson, a junior brought along for the experience. Pack-carriers were A. Crouch, J. Stevenson, S. Kennedy and M. Macdonald, the last a junior getting experience.

Look Closely at the Trademark of the bicycle you buy...

TO DO THIS is of vital importance to you for the C.C.M. trade mark indicates the value and service you will receive from the bicycle you buy.

If you follow the lead of 8 out of 10 cyclists, you will be very sure that the bicycle you buy bears the C.C.M. trade mark.

There are many many reasons why Canadians prefer this made-in-Canada bicycle - here are four of them:

1. C.C.M. Bicycles have been completely built in Canada for nearly 50 years which means there is a wealth of experience in the "know how" of bicycle building which spells long years of trouble-free cycling to the lucky owner of a C.C.M.
2. The three fast-moving parts of a C.C.M. Bicycle—the front wheel hub, the crank and sprocket assembly and the rear wheel hub including the coaster brake, are accurately made from special steels heat treated and finished to within a thousandth of an inch. It is because a C.C.M. is micro-built in this way that it is so easy to pedal and runs so smoothly.
3. C.C.M. Bicycles are finished with several baked-on coats of lustrous, weatherproof enamel.
4. The owner of a C.C.M. Bicycle can obtain service, parts, accessories and a high trade-in value for his C.C.M. from among the 3,000 C.C.M. dealers throughout Canada.

So — when you buy a bicycle for yourself or as a gift to another, be very sure it bears the C.C.M. trade mark.

C.C.M. HANGER

C.C.M. STRONG FRONT HUB

First Dip For 11 Sessions

NEW YORK (AP)—Spots of strength remained in today's stock market although many leaders slipped despite apparent settlement of the coal walkout. Easier tendencies ruled after a fairly active opening. Declines of fractions to a point or so predominated near the close. It was the first average dip in 11 sessions.

MR. R. L. DALES

The Bank of Nova Scotia announces the appointment of Mr. Robert L. Dales as Supervisor in charge of Branches in Western Canada with headquarters in Winnipeg.

Mr. Dales has had a broad banking experience in both eastern and western Canada. He entered the bank in Ontario and after serving in various branches he enlisted in 1915. Returning from overseas, he rejoined the bank in Toronto in 1920. His experience covers the inspection staff and 13 years in western Canada at Winnipeg and Calgary. Appointed manager of the bank's main branch in Toronto in 1944, Mr. Dales became supervisor of branches in the Maritime provinces with headquarters in Saint John, N.B., in 1946 and he comes to Winnipeg from that point.

The city will call for tenders for purchase of an electricity generating plant purchased at the same time the Gordon Head airport property was acquired. It is planned to turn over part of $6,754 worth of other equipment and materials on the property to the street lighting committee.
